FOUR FOR ONE
JAZZ QUARTET

If your musical tastes embrace a love of the jazz art form, you've just met four soul mates. This stellar jazz quartet, Four For One, will take you on a tour of musical styles that travels deep into the heart and out to the far edges of innovation, but always expresses the very best of the jazz genre.

Four For One is a meeting of the minds of four very accomplished North Carolina musicians whose collective beliefs embrace a love and sharing of the jazz art form. Four For One is a group without the usual revolving personnel all too common in the jazz world. Tackling a variety of musical styles in the jazz idiom is a favorite pastime of this veteran group of North Carolina-based performers. Educational aspects are revealed and discussed with every concert performance, setting a new standard in audience interaction and involvement. Since forming in 2002, they have played numerous concerts, club dates, and private functions. Each summer sees the members coaching many aspiring young jazz players as faculty members for The John Coltrane Jazz Workshop in High Point NC. Four For One also teaches a Jazz Improvisation class in the Portals of Discovery education program at The Reynolda House Museum of American Art.
